

Sharing the Sacraments when In-person Contact Is Not Possible

- At the 2019 World Conference, the following words of counsel were shared with the church. This counsel challenged the Presidency to give increased attention to how to make the sacraments available to the church, through online experiences, during this pandemic:

Sharing the Sacraments when In-person Contact Is Not Possible

“Technology presents opportunities for involvement in sacraments by priesthood members and participants in separate locations. The First Presidency will act in its calling as chief interpreters of scripture, revelation, and church policies to provide procedures for offering sacraments in new situations while upholding essential meanings and symbols of the sacraments. As the church explores new opportunities for sharing sacraments, direction will come as needed through inspiration and wisdom.”

Sharing the Sacraments when In-person Contact Is Not Possible

After extended consideration, the Presidency is providing principles and guidelines for offering the sacraments through online means during the pandemic. These principles and guidelines may be refined in the future as the church lives into its experiences with online ministries.

Sacraments Involve Symbols and Actions

We recognize the sacraments, as expressions of God's loving grace and presence, involve symbols, procedures, and words that draw us deeper into covenant with God, who yearns to offer wholeness in our lives.

- Things (olive oil, water, bread)
- Actions (laying on of hands)
- Events (a Communion Service)
- People (ministers or fellow disciples)
- Communities (congregations, groups)
- Symbolic Language (“covenant,” “repent,” “consecrate,” “bless”)

Sacraments Involve Symbols and Actions

We acknowledge that sacrament ministry through online technology will require a different way of experiencing some symbols.

- When it is not possible to use symbols that involve touch, such as laying on of hands, providing a visual expression of those symbols or an auditory statement, which is provided in the Guideline section to follow, is an effective way to encounter symbolic meaning and connection with the sacraments.

Sacraments Involve Symbols and Actions

- As much as possible, we encourage priesthood to make the sacrament symbols visually present in the online sacrament experience. Making the symbol visually present may not always be possible due to multiple circumstances.
- Priesthood members are encouraged to do the best they can to uphold the principle of symbol(s) associated with the sacrament.
- In all instances, the priesthood member(s) providing the sacrament, the recipient(s) of the sacrament, and the gathered community should be invited to embrace the presence of the Holy Spirit as they remember the life and ministry of Jesus Christ through the sacrament symbols.

Sacraments Involve Symbols and Actions

- It is our hope that providing for the sacraments to be shared through online experiences will continue the pastoral-care ministries the church is called to extend into human life, even during this time of physical distancing. It also will provide the church learnings for how to share the sacraments in a world that is becoming more borderless through online connections. May blessings abound as you offer these gifts.

Principles for Online Sacraments

1. Sacraments are provided in the spirit and context of worship.
2. While actual physical presence is customary, there are circumstances when physical presence is not possible or wise.
3. Real time online sacrament ministry is treated as though all participants are in a single physical location, sharing together in a nearly simultaneous experience.

Principles for Online Sacraments

4. Real time online sacrament ministry includes visual and auditory (and/or closed-captioned) connection. If visual connection is not available, auditory-only and/or closed-captioned is acceptable.
5. Participants physically present with each other observe all public health mandates and precautions to protect each other and the most vulnerable.
6. Objects or substances used in sacraments are prepared and utilized with the health and safety of all participants in mind.

Principles for Online Sacraments

7. If a sacrament includes physical contact (anointing, laying on of hands, baptizing, etc.), permission is requested from the recipient (or responsible adult) to be physically near and touch the candidate in the prescribed manner.
8. If physical laying on of hands is not possible or wise because of health precautions, an alternative ritual expressing the meaning of laying on of hands is provided.
9. The use of a proxy is not allowed. A proxy is giving authority to a person to physically represent the recipient of the sacrament or represent the priesthood member(s) performing the sacrament when the recipient and priesthood member(s) are not physically present with each other.

Principles for Online Sacraments

10. Requests for exceptions to these principles and following guidelines need to be submitted to the Presidency through the mission center president and apostle.

- “We use oil that has been consecrated and prayerfully reserved for this special purpose (display the oil for participants to see). I place a drop of oil in my hand as I offer an anointing prayer. May you accept God’s invitation into the sacredness of this moment as you allow yourself to imagine and sense the consecrated oil and the touch of my hands on your head.”
- The same or a second Melchisedec priesthood member states: “I continue in the Spirit of this sacrament as I pray for your well-being and wholeness, as Jesus touched and prayed over many who were in need. May you feel that same touch of Holy Presence as you imagine and sense the touch of my hands on your head.”

Things to Remember:

- Real-time participation:
 - If you record your services, please make sure to explain during the service that the Lord's Supper is only to be observed during the live online worship experience – those who watch the recorded service later should be instructed to wait until they can join in a future Communion service.
- Preparation and Intention:
 - The Spirit is ready to bring blessing. Our preparation and intention during online sacraments will help facilitate this.
- Watch for Updated Instructions
